Subject payment of a stipend from the Municipal council, Chintamani to the Ayurvedic Pandith of the town

Sir,

I have the honour to state that Mr. S.Ramasharma, a certified pandit of Chintamani town has been maintaining an Ayurvedic dispensary at the place. It is stated that this dispensary has been serving the public well and has been very useful The Pandith holds a certificate of "Vaidya Visarada" conferred on him by the Karnataka Ayurvedic College, Bangalore; a copy of which is enclosed in the records It is reported that during the year 1947 about 6000 patients were treated by him and that during the current year about 30 patients on an average are undergoing treatment every day The pandit is not in receipt of any stipends from the Local Bodies and therefore, he has prayed for the grant of Rs. 30/- per month from the Municipal funds towards the medicine charges. The Municipal council at their meeting held on 25-11-1947 have resolved that a stipend of Rs 25/- p.m. may be paid to the pandit and the extra cost met from the closing balance of the council I request that sanction of Government may kindly be obtained to the resolution of the Muncipal council dated 25-11-1947 to pay a stipend of Rs. 25/- to the Ayurvedic pandit in Chintamani town from the date of the resolution, subject to the condition that he would maintain the accounts required by the municipality

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Deputy Commissioner,
Kolar District
